

Prayers for VE DAY

On this day, we commemorate the 75th anniversary of Victory in Europe, when the sounds of war fell silent on this continent. We are conscious of our need for God's forgiveness for the sin and the desire to dominate others that leads to conflict between people, and war between nations. And as we remember the many soldiers, sailors, and airmen who gave their lives restraining evil and opposing tyranny, so we also come in thanksgiving for the years of peace that the nations of Europe have enjoyed since the Second World War.

We gather in many different ways, together or isolated. We are grateful for the laughter and love that can follow times of sadness and loss. But above all things, let us pray that God's will may be done on earth as it is in heaven.

O Lord, when thou givest to thy servants to endeavour in any great matter, Grant us also to know that it is not the beginning but the continuing of the same until it be thoroughly finished that yieldeth the true glory, through him for the finishing of thy work laid down his life, Jesus Christ our Lord. Teach us, good Lord, to serve thee as thou deservest, to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and not to ask for any reward; except that of knowing that we do thy will. Amen.

The Naval Prayer

O Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens and rulest the raging of the sea; who has compassed the waters with bounds until day and night come to an end; be pleased to receive into Thy almighty and most gracious protection the persons of us Thy servants, and the Fleet in which we serve. Preserve us from the dangers of the sea and of the air, and from the violence of the enemy; that we may be a safeguard unto our most gracious Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth, and her Dominions, and a security for such as pass upon the seas upon their lawful occasions; that the inhabitants of our islands and Commonwealth may in peace and quietness serve Thee our God; and that we may return in safety to enjoy the blessings of the land, with the fruits of our labours, and with a thankful remembrance of Thy mercies to praise and glorify Thy Holy Name; Amen.

An Army Collect

Almighty God, whose command is overall and whose love never fails, let us be aware of your presence and obedient to your will. Help us to accept our share of responsibility with strong heart and cheerful mind. Make us considerate of those with whom we live and serve, and faithful to the duties our country has entrusted to us. Let our uniform remind us daily of the traditions of the Army in which we serve. When we are tempted to sin, let us resist. When we fail, give us courage to try again. Guide us with the light of your truth, and keep before us the example of Jesus in whose name we pray and in whom we trust. Amen.

Almighty God, who has promised that they who wait upon thee shall renew their strength and mount up with wings, as eagles, we commend to thy fatherly protection all who serve in the Royal Air Force. Help us to fulfil our several duties with honour, goodwill and integrity, and grant that we may prove to be worthy successors of those who by their valour and sacrifice did nobly save their day and generation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
